WILSON MAY RECEIVE DELEGATES OF WOMEN

Reception Planned for Bearers Message from Woman Voters'

The National Capital is preparing a great welcome for Mrs. Sara Bard Field and Miss Frances Joliffe, the envoys of the woman voters' convention heid in San Francisco last month, who will arrive here December 6. It is expected that the President will receive them. Congress will accept their petitions for the Susan B. Anthony amendment, and the Senate Committee on Suffrage and the House Judiciary Committee will hear their demands for votes for women.

The Congressional Union will send out to the edge of the city several hundred suffrage workers to meet Mrs. Field and Miss Joliffe as they advance from Maryland by motor car, and escort them to the Capitol behind a band of music and beneath flying colors.

The envoys from the women voters of the equal suffrage States left San Francisco about the middle of September and are now traveling through the various States along the way. They will make their final stops in New York, Pennsylvand, From Maryland they invade the District of Columbia.

Democratic Leaders Believed to Dislike Proposal of Levy of Special Revenue.

The possibility of a general revision of the tariff upward was brought to the fore yesterday by the disclosure from an official source that the government will have to have for the current expenses of the next fiscal year $50,000,000 more than will be provided by the war and income taxes and the tariff act, even if the sugar duties are retained, as is now planted by the administration.

This $50,000 000 additional revenue will be needed without legard to the increased expenditures for national defense, for which the administration sems practically to have decided to provide by issuing bonds.

It became known yesterday that gov-ernment officials, after a careful inves-tigation as to the total yield to be extigation as to the total yield to be ex-pected from the revenue producing acts now in force are convinced that next year's incomes will fall approximately $50,000,000 short of the needs of the government for its normal expenses, and have so reported to members of the Ways and Means Committee of the
